Our brand is being deployed/used by various companies and customers. Can this information be provided by the principal/brand we represent instead of the bidders?	No. Satisfactory performance should be provided by the bidders. Our satisfactory performance requirement do not only asses the product itself but also the bidders when it comes to after sales.
		Request for (7) day extension to submit our bid. This additional time will allow all bidders to thoroughly assess the technical requirements for this bid, reducing the likelihood of errors. Furthermore, it will facilitate the participation of more bidders in this project.	We will not extend as we have continuous need of managed switches.
