FUND MANAGER'S REPORT

The FOMC officials last June 13, 2018 expectedly announced a rate hike bringing federal funds rate to 1.75-2.0%. Fed chair Powell cited the economy's activity as strong overall with a solid labor market as unemployment rates fall. Furthermore mentioning rate hikes ahead consistent with the 2.0% inflation target. The median estimates for the funds rate end-2018 is at 2.4% and 3.1% by end-2019.

Onshore, the BSP's overnight borrowing rate has been increased a cumulative of 50bps to 3.50% on the back of a weak currency and rising prices. Governor Espenilla has also acknowledged views of further tightening if the peso fails to stabilize and proper assessment of monetary tools to ensure price stability.

VIEW STRATEGY

The Fed decided to increase its interest rate to 2.0 percent from 1.75 percent in its June 2018 FOMC meeting and seeing 2 to 3 more rate hike within 2018. BSP Monetary Board also raised its overnight rate by 25 basis points to 3.50% in its June 21, 2018 meeting.

Considering all these scenarios, government securities interest rates are expected to move in upward bias. For the Fund, it is best to accumulate treasury bills in tranches and when market rate is at its peak optimizing returns. Also, maximizing investment in time deposit as short-term deposit rate is increasing.
